| Democrats voting for Richardson and Orr | 80 |

Mr. Miller, of Missouri, and Mr. Childs, of New York, absent since the beginning of the session; Mr. Trumbull's seat vacant. A number of times within the last four weeks the number recorded above as having voted for Mr. Banks could have elected him; and if to these are added the republican know-nothings who vote for Mr. Pennington, it would give to the side of the House supporting Mr. Banks a clear majority of the whole number, even with an unusual attendance.

This list has been prepared with great care, and is believed to be accurate. If any gentleman is erroneously classed it will give us pleasure to make the correction. Wash. Union.

PROSPECTUS OF THE.
North Carolina Christian Advocate.
THE NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, having determined to issue a weekly paper bearing the above name, the subscribers are authorized to issue this prospectus.
It is intended to publish a family newspaper, which, while it shall be religious in tone and sentiment, and maintain the doctrines and usages of the Methodist Church, shall be devoted to all the interests of North Carolina, and furnish intelligence for every class of readers.
In size and appearance the new periodical is to be equal to any of our church papers, while it will surpass them as in adaptedness to the wants of our people. The entire insufficiency of the existing "Advocates" to the necessity of our position, forces us to the publication of our own paper; and we confidently expect the hearty co-operation of the members of our church in all parts of the State and Conference, and hope to make the paper so interesting and instructive as to attract patronage from the public generally.
The "Advocate" will be published at $1 50 a year, and the first number will be issued as early as practicable after the next session of our Conference. It is believed that the publication will be commenced on the 1st of January, 1856. It is desirable that as large a subscription as possible be obtained before the Conference, and the ministers and all others interested in the enterprise are respectfully urged to secure and forward the names and address of subscribers, particular attention being paid to correctness in writing the names of persons, post offices and counties. Those who may have no opportunity of subscribing through the agency of our ministers, may write directly to Rev. Wm. E. Pell, Fayetteville, N. C. The payment will be expected upon the issue of the first number.
The location of the publishing office will be determined at the session of the Conference.

PANAMA IN 1855.—AN ACCOUNT OF THE PANAMA Railroad, of the Cities of Panama and Aspinwall, with Sketches of Life and character on the Isthmus. By Robert Tomes. With Illustrations, 16mo muslin.
The writer of this volume accompanied an invited party from New York to assist at the opening of the Panama Railroad. He has given a full and interesting account of that great industrial enterprise from its inception to its completion, with a graphic and instructive description of the romantic country, whose eastern and western shores are connected by the iron bands of the railroad. The sketches of a tropical climate, of the curious natural history of the Isthmus, and its peculiar social customs and habits, which are presented by the author in a style of unflagging animation and gayety, make his work one of the most attractive books of travel ever issued from the American press. The illustrations are from drawings made on the spot.

Democratic Meeting in Catawba.

At a meeting of the Democrats of Catawba County, held in the Court House in Newton on the 15th day of March, on motion of Geo. Setzer, Henderson Sherrill was called to the Chair, and on motion of Capt. John H. Robinson, Geo. Setzer and T. W. Bradburn were appointed Secretaries. The object of the meeting was then explained by the Chairman, to be for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State Convention to be held in the City of Raleigh on the 16th day of April next, to nominate some suitable person as our next candidate for Governor, and also to appoint delegates to a District Convention.

It was then moved that T. W. Bradburn, Daniel Leonard, John H. Robinson, Geo. M. Yoder, and Fielding Turner, be appointed a committee to draft resolutions; and after retiring a short time reported the following resolutions which were adopted:

Resolved, That we approve of holding a Democratic State Convention in the City of Raleigh on the 16th day of April, as designated by the Democratic Central Committee.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting appoint twenty delegates to represent Catawba County in said Convention.

Resolved, That whilst we will cheerfully support the nominee of the Convention for Governor: Provided, That he is a Democrat, tried and faithful in the principles of State rights and Free Suffrage:

Resolved, That we would prefer a second time to rally around our former gallant standard bearer, his Excellency Thomas Bragg.

Resolved, That we faithfully adhere to the compromises of our State constitution as to representation in the Legislature, and prefer the mode of amending that instrument by legislative enactment as therein pointed out.

Resolved, That we reaffirm our devotion to the platform of principles enunciated by the Democratic party at the Baltimore Convention, held in 1852.

Resolved, That the bold, manly and fearless manner in which the nominee of that Convention has carried out in the practical administration of the government, the national principles there declared, proves him to be the man for the times and a patriot worthy of the purest days of the republic.

Resolved, That we warmly approve the late action of the Democratic members of the present Congress touching the organization of the House, and whilst deploring as a national calamity the election of an avowed abolitionist and disunionist as Speaker, we proclaim with proud satisfaction that the national Democracy are in wise responsible for this triumph of sectionalism over nationality and of faction over patriotism.

Resolved, That we are opposed to all secret political societies upon whatever principles the same may be organized, or however captivating may be the doctrines which such dark conclaves avow, and more especially do we desire to express our opposition to the secret political organization existing in our midst known as Know Nothings, but self-styled Americans.

Resolved, That Franklin Pierce deserves the gratitude of the whole country for his faithful adherence to Democratic principles in all his official acts, and the South particularly for his unflinching determination to defend her constitutional rights against the unholy designs of Northern abolitionists; and should he be the candidate of the party, it will afford us great pleasure in testifying our regard by casting our suffrages for him in November next. We also proclaim that the Hon. Jas. C. Dobbin is our first choice for the Vice Presidency.

Resolved, That we recommend to our Democratic brethren in this Congressional District that a Convention be holden in the town of Charlotte at a very early day for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent this District in the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati on the first Monday in June next.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting appoint ten delegates to represent this County in the proposed District Convention.

Democratic Meeting in Forsyth.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy of Forsyth was held in the Court House, in Winston, on the 18th inst., and was organized by calling Col. Henry Marshall to the Chair, and appointing F. E. Boner Secretary.

The Chairman briefly explained the object of the meeting, and, on motion, a committee of three was appointed to draft Resolutions for the consideration of the same, viz: Col. J. A. Waugh, Col. Joseph Masten, and the Secretary.

After retiring, the committee reported to the meeting the following Resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we heartily respond to the call of the Democratic State Committee, to hold a Convention in the City of Raleigh, on the 16th of April next; and that the Chairman of this meeting appoint 20 delegates to represent the feelings and wishes of the Democratic citizens of Forsyth in said Convention.

Resolved, That we here re-assert our entire and full confidence in the great cardinal truths enunciated in the platform of principles adopted by the Democracy of the Union in the Baltimore National Convention of 1852, in so far as they have any bearing upon the present condition of the country.

Resolved, That for his firm, national, and patriotic course in the administration of the government, Franklin Pierce has proven himself a statesman of incorruptible integrity, of wise counsel, and true devotion to the constitutional rights of every section of the Union; and with pride we point to his late annual message, as containing, in our conception, the proper, just, and clear exposition of the nature of our form of government, and the existing rights between the States as sovereigns.

Resolved, That we do condem and deprecate all secret, oath-bound political societies or conclaves, no matter on what pretext founded, or what principles conducted, as anti-republican, irresponsible, and repugnant to the genius of our government; and believing that the political organization, entitled "Know Nothing," alias the self-styled "American" party, is of baneful tendency—proscriptive and intolerant—we do most emphatically denounce its origin, and rejoice now in its early decay and rottenness.

Resolved, That we would hail with joy the renomination at Cincinnati, of Franklin Pierce for a second Presidential term, in order that he might consummate, at this exciting crisis of affairs, the delicate duty of calming the passions, and restoring peace and quiet to all sections of our country, now torn by the factious agitation of the slavery question; nevertheless, we will unite upon and give our suffrages to any reliable and qualified Democrat whom the wisdom of that Convention may put forward—believing that none but sound, able and conservative nominees will be presented to the people by that body for election.

Resolved, That so just, beneficial, and praiseworthy has been the administrative policy of his Excellency, Thomas Bragg, that we cannot withhold the expression of our approbation; and as far as an expression of opinion may go, we hope and trust he will be re-nominated for election by acclamation—believing, as we do, that the hearts of the people of the whole State beat in unison with our own in his approval.

The following delegates were appointed to represent Forsyth county in the State Democratic Convention, on the 16th April next:—Wm. Flynt, Sr. Saml. Alspaugh, J. A. Waugh, M. H. Linville, Geo. Mock, Israel Nusom, A. Watkins, R. A. Shults, P. Barrow, A. Flynt, J. H. Hester, A. M. Gamble, J. Watson, J. Masten, J. Crews, Jr., J. Lawrence, H. Shouse, J. A. Styres, S. Pfaff, A. Transou, J. W. Alspaugh, A. Conrad, M. Spainhour, S. Long, S. Laugenour, Wm. Barrow, O. A. Keshin, H. Barrow, R. Murchison, A. J. Stanford, J. M. Cook.

On motion, the names of the Chairman and Secretary were added to the list.

The following delegates were appointed to the District Convention, to assemble in Winston on Tuesday of April Court next:—J. Styres, S. Transou, M. Barrow, J. B. Clayton, S. Hester, S. Preston, T. ### Democratic Meeting in Stokes.

A large and respectable portion of the Democrats of Stokes met in the Court House, in Danbury, on Tuesday, 11th March, (being Court week.) On motion, Horatio Kallam, Esq., was appointed Chairman, and Joel F. Hill and J. F. Riddick were requested to act as Secretaries. The Chairman explained the object of the meeting in a few brief and forcible remarks.

Dr. John Q. Beasly offered the following Resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we reaffirm our confidence in the principles of the Democratic party, which has shown itself to be the only true, national, and conservative party in the country; and that we will endeavor, by all honorable and fair means, to place the administration of public affairs in the hands of men, who acknowledge no law as higher than the constitution of our country, and who have taken no obligations inconsistent with the character of freemen.

Resolved, That we are opposed to the Know Nothing, or self-styled American party, and will resist their efforts to introduce into this country, which has heretofore been the abode of civil and religious liberty, a war of races and religions.

Resolved, That all conservative, law-abiding citizens are invited to act with the Democratic party, being the only party in the government able and willing to defend and protect the rights of all sections, and save the South from the consequences of an alliance between the abolition and Know Nothing parties.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the administration of Franklin Pierce, and that he is entitled to the gratitude of the people, for the firm and decided manner in which he has resisted the enemies of our country, both at home and abroad, and for the able and faithful performance of the duties of his great office.

Resolved, That we desire to express our sense of gratitude to those Northern men who, amid the fanaticism of the North, have had the boldness and independence to risk their popularity, and in many cases their lives, in defending the constitutional rights of the South.

Resolved, That his Excellency, Thomas Bragg, by the able and faithful manner in which he has discharged the duties of his office, has fulfilled the promises and expectations of his friends, and has silenced the opposition of his enemies; that with him as our standard bearer in the approaching Gubernatorial contest, North Carolina will give a majority which will place her at the head of Democratic States.

Resolved, That in answer to the call for a Democratic convention in Raleigh, on the 16th of April, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor, the Chairman of this meeting appoint ten delegates to attend said convention.

Resolved, That we approve of the proposition to hold a convention in the town of Winston, on the 15th day of April, for the purpose of selecting two delegates to represent this Congressional District in the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in June, and that the Chairman of this meeting is hereby authorized to appoint ten delegates to said convention.

The following persons were appointed to attend the State Convention at Raleigh:—Caleb Hill, D. R. Leak, John Grabbs, E. T. Beasly, J. M. Dearman, M. T. Smith, Hiram Smith, Fleming Priddy, Hamilton Scales and W. A. Mitchell.

The delegates appointed to the District Convention, at Winston, were, John Hill, Peter Hutchinson, Joseph Fulp, J. J. Martin, W. J. Moore, G. W. Wilson, J. W. Spainhour, C. W. McAnally, Wm. Ward, Jr., and Solomon Morgan.

On motion, the Chairman and Secretaries were added to the list of delegates to both Conventions.

On motion, it was ordered that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the North-Carolina Standard.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

On motion of Geo. S. Stevenson, Isreal Disosway was called to the Chair, and J. E. Morris was appointed Secretary.

The Chairman having explained the object of the meeting, on motion of G. S. Stevenson, a committee of five was appointed to draft resolutions for the consideration and action of the meeting, viz: G. S. Stevenson, J. Bryan, J. J. Robinson, B. F. Borden, and W. G. Bryan.

The committee, after consulting, reported, through their Chairman, G. S. Stevenson, the following resolutions:

MCCORMICK'S REAPING MACHINE.—The editor of the New York Tribune, in a late letter from this city, thus speaks of the magnificent gold medal awarded to Mr. McCormick, by the French Exhibition, for his reaping machine:

"Mr. C. H. McCormick, of 'reaper' renown, has just received at this place his 'grand medal of honor' from the French Exhibition of Industry, in acknowledgment of the originality, great merit, and successful working of his machine at the official test. The medal is of pure gold, of large size, contains some $125 worth of the shining ore, and is of course faultlessly executed. Being the only one of class which has reached this continent, (for Mr. Goodyear is now a resident of Paris,) it has seemed to me worthy of his mention. Our inventors must win more than two such at the next World' Exhibition, if held at any point so accessible as Paris."

The award of the grand medal of honor to Mr. McCormick is thus announced in the Paris Moniteur:

"McCormick, Chicago, United States, inventor of the reaping machine which has performed the best in all the trals, and which is the type after which have been made all the other reaping machines, with diverse modifications, which have not changed the principle of the discovery."

Hon. Wm. Elliot, commissioner of the State of South Carolina to the French Exhibition, in his report to the Governor of that State, thus speaks of the reaping machine:

"I had the pleasure of witnessing its trial and second triumph in the field of Trappes, where model implements, selected from France and England, were brought in competition with it only to attest its superiority. Its success was so distinguished as to disarm envy, and bring down generous cheers from the vanquished parties. These machines, from their eminent success abroad, will probably secure the fortunes of their inventors. They are more immediately needful to such countries as are oppressed by dear labor, but are by no means superfluous to us; and, could they serve for the rapid securing of the rice crop, subject at its harvest season to so many accidents from storm and inundation, their benefit to us would be incalculable."

FREESOIL GOVERNOR OF KANSAS.—Mr. Charles Robinson, who is called "Governor elect of Kansas," was highly extolled by Senator Wilson, in his late speech, and compared with Miles Standish. Senator Jones, of Tennessee, in reply to Mr. Wilson, said:

"I desire to ask who is this Mr. Charles Robinson, who is called Governor elect of Kansas? Does the honorable Senator pretend to know who he is? [Mr. Wilson nodded assent.] The honorable Senator bows his head. Then I hope he will furnish the Senate a biographical sketch of him. I have a few paragraphs in regard to that gentleman; and, by way of aiding the Senator with the preparation of his memoir, I will state what I know of him. I shall not resort to newspapers, but I can refer to the records of the country to establish what I say. Mr. Charles Robinson—the Miles Standish of Kansas—was once a citizen of the State of California; and what was he there? He was the head and front, the leader of a band of disperadoes as infamous as ever disgraced any age or country. He it was that organized a band in the city of Sacramento for the purpose of warring against the rights of property there. He it was who led that band in that ever memorable, ever to be execrated conflict, in which the peaceful mayor of the city of Sacramento, and the sheriff of that county, in attempting to execute the law, were shot down. He was arrested and put into prison, and while there was elected to the Legislature by these ruffians, these squatters, these men essaying to usurp the rights of property. He went to the Legislature as the champion of that spurious or squatter sovereignty in California. When the Sentorial election came on, I am informed by a gentleman well advised on the subject, instead of standing up to the party which elected him, he voted for the largest property holder in California. On the 28th of February—if I am not mistaken in the date—your Miles Standish left the Legislature, and never appeared there again. The journals show it: I had them examined last night. He left California, and the next time that Miles Standish, alias Mr. Governor Charles Robinson, makes his appearance on the stage, he is at his old game, leading on desperadoes to the violation of the law and resistance to the legal authorities of the country."

ELOQUENTLY SPOKEN—WASHINGTON'S CHARITY.—Gov. Wise, of Virginia, can utter brilliant thoughts, and sometimes they are apropos, as is his recent letter to New York on religious toleration;

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 17, 1856.

GENTLEMEN:—I cannot, I regret to say, accept your invitation to your first annual banquet in commemoration of the birthday of Washington; but I concur heartily in the object of rescuing the fame of the Father of his Country from the imputation that he ever would have excluded any class of citizens from equality under the law; that he would ever have fettered conscience, reason, or the free will of man; that he would have ever countenanced religious intolerance by means of Test Oaths and secret cabals, and by a union of priestcraft with politics! His wisdon was too profound, his religion too pure and unspotted from the world, his Republicanism was too genuine and devoted to his country and fellow man, for that. In his name I invoke all who follow his example, to his sign in the Heaven; I point all who regard him a guardian of our laws and liberty, to come up to the help of our Constitution and Union, and to the succor of the oppressed of every clime who would come, without money and without price, to partake of the waters of liberty and equality freely! There are "many mansions in our Father's house in Heaven," and every door to each and all is open, and the ways to all should be left open upon earth. Washington never closed one behind him.

I am yours truly,

HENRY A. WISE.

A Genuine Letter from the Japan Expedition—Two confirmed scholars wish to learn.

I send you something in the way of a literary and oriental curiosity. I can vouch for its authenticity, and the truth of this statement, viz: that it is the letter of two "scholars" of Japan, who, during the late visit of Commodore Perry to that kingdom, wished, with their enlarged notions of liberty, to fly their country and government, to expand the sphere of their knowledge in other lands and beneath other skies. It came into possession of some of the officers, and was given into mine, that it might, by the present mode, be presented to a still larger number of those who are fond of the novel and the curious. It is scarcely necessary to say that no such breach of international faith was committed as to allow the two "scholars" an opportunity to escape by the plan their ingenuity sought and their peculiar sophistry extenuated.

The gentleman from whom your correspondent obtained it, has a portfolio of sketches of many of the most prominent places in China and Japan, visited by the expedition under command of the gallant Perry. The following derives an increased interest from the fact that the visit to the "celestial islands" is just now one of the most interesting topics discussed by the scientific and the learned:

Literal Translation of the Letter received from two Japanese Scholars:

"Two Scholars from Yedo, in Japan, present this letter for the inspection of "the high officers, and those who manage affairs." Our attainments are few and trifling, as we ourselves are small and unimportant; so that we are abashed in coming before you. We are neither skilled in the use of arms nor are we able to discourse upon the rules of strategy and military discipline. In trifling pursuits and idle pastimes, our years and months have slipped away. We have, however, read in books, and learned a little by hearsay, what are the customs and education in Europe and America; and we have been, for many years, desirous of going over the "five great continents;" but the laws of our country, in all maritime points, are very strict—for foreigners to come into the country and for natives to go abroad, are both immutably forbidden. Our wish to visit other regions, consequently, only goes to and fro within our own breasts, in continual agitation, "like one's breathing impeded or his walking cramped." Happily, the arrival of so many of your ships in these waters, and stay for so many days, which has given us opportunity to make a pleasing acquaintance and careful examination, so that we are fully assured of the kindness and liberality of your Excellencies, and your regard for others, has also revived the thoughts of many years, and they are urgent for our exit.

This, then, is the time to carry the plan into execution; and we now secretly send you this private request, that you will take us on board your ships as they go out to sea. We can thus visit around in the five great continents, even if we do, in this, slight the prohibition of our own country. Lest those who have the management of affairs may feel some chagrin at this, in order to effect our desire, we are willing to serve in any way we can aboard of the ships, and obey the orders given us. For doubtless it is, when a lame man sees others walking, he wishes to walk too; but how shall the pedestrian gratify his desires when he sees another one riding? We have, all our lives, been going hither and yon, unable to get more than 30 degrees East and West, or 25 degrees North and South; but now, when we see how you sail on the tempest, and cleave the huge billows, going lightning speed thousands and myriads of miles, skirting along the great continents, can it not be likened to the lame finding a plan for walking, and the pedestrian seeing a mode by which he can ride? If you who manage affairs will give our request your consideration, we will retain the sense of the favor; but the prohibitions of our country are still existent, and if this matter should become known, we should uselessly see ourselves pursued and brought back for immediate execution, without fail; and such a result would greatly grieve the deep humanity and kindness you all bear towards others. If you are willing to accede to this request, keep "wrapped in silence" our error in making it, until you are about to leave, in order to avoid all risk of such serious danger to life; for when, by and by, we come back, our countrymen will never think it worth while to investigate by-gone doings. Although our words have only loosely let our thoughts leak out, yet truly they are sincere; and if your Excellencies are pleased to regard them kindly, do not doubt them or oppose our wishes. We together pay our respects in handing this in.

The above is enough for the present, from yours &c., 1856.

NEWBERN, March 17, 1856.

Editors N. C. Standard:

GENTLEMEN:—We are gratified in being able to announce to you the first race of the steam horse on the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad. This great event took place on Saturday last. Having heard, as there was no formal notice given by the company, that the locomotive, "Governor Bragg," would be brought out for a trial of speed at 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, we strolled up to the Depot grounds, and what was our surprise to find the people from the adjoining country and all parts of the town gathering in multitudes to witness the sight and testify how their hearts were enlisted in the success of this great work.

The scene at the depot was indeed a glorious one. On the track stood panting for the race the handsomest and best finished engine ever brought into this State, while the entire depot grounds were crowded with people in whom the beauty, the intelligence, and the enserprise of the county and town were all represented.

Such an outpouring of the people, such a manifestation of enthusiasm has never been witnessed before in this ancient old town. At about half-past 3 o'clock, Mr. Brown, the gentlemanly and intelligent engineer who came out to this town to put the engine up for the builders, notified the President of the company that all was ready for a start, and he immediately mounted the platform, accompanied by Messrs. Stevenson, Moore and Green of the Directors, Mr. E. R. Stanly, the contractor, and Mr. Miller the efficient principal assistant engineer. The Chief Engineer, we learned, was absent from town. The signal was given with the whistle to start, and off sped the locomotive "like a thing of life," and round after round of enthusiastic cheers was given for the "Gov. Bragg" and the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, which was followed by the waving of handkerchiefs by the ladies. It was a most moving scene indeed to any one, and it must have been a happy and glorious time to these public-spirited men who have pushed this great enterprise through to success in spite of all opposition. After the locomotive's return three platform cars were attached to it and were soon densely crowded with ladies and gentlemen, who were taken up and down the road several times. The negroes were then given a ride, and the "Gov. Bragg" was carefully rubbed down and put away; the people dispersed perfectly delighted—not an accident having occurred to mar the pleasure of the afternoon.

The locomotive, we understand, was built at the shops of Messrs. Rogers, Ketcham & Grosvenor, Patterson, New Jersey. This announcement under any circumstances would be a sufficient guarantee of its performance and appearance. But as this company has (we think very wisely) encouraged a spirit of competition among some of the most celebrated locomotive builders in the United States, and as the above named builders entered into the competition, it is much easier to imagine than to describe the superior finish of the "Gov. Bragg." Suffice it to say that it is considered by judges to be a perfect machine in every particular, and does credit even to Messrs. Rogers, Ketcham & Grosvenor.

WHAT THEY THINK IN EUROPE.—People in Europe don't seem to understand our party designations. "Banks, Black Reupblican, of Massachusetts, elected Speaker," was the announcement of the result of the Congressional contest by United States newspapers. Over in Europe they took him, in consequence of this, to be a negro! And the "Independence Belge" in announcing the result to its readers says that "the new Speaker of the House is a black of Massachusetts, who belongs, as his color sufficiently indicates, to the extreme party of the abolitionists."

The City Fathers have had the humble petition of the pigs under grave consideration. They cannot retreat. They can take no steps backward. The pigs are doomed, and must submit. The Fathers, however, are disposed to treat their victims with all proper respect, and have therefore invoked the aid of the muses in responding to the petition, and have condescended to assign the reasons which have impelled them to the stern discharge of their duty. The pigs have certainly acted with singular indiscretion. They ought not to have scampered among the feet of the ladies and soiled their dresses. They should by no means have spoken irreverently of the City authorities. They ought not to have rooted about in improper places, nor curled their tails in derision of passers-by. The Fathers have below very properly quoted scripture at the juvenile offenders, and feelingly rehearsed their sins. How could they be forgiven? Let them die with dignity and calmly submit to their fate, content with the assurance that after being comfortably phlebotomised, depilated, disemboweled and torrefacted, they shall glide gently down the æsophagus of many a City Epicure, and in the aristocratic stomachs of our City Fathers be snugly and softly sepulchred.

MR. HAUGHTON'S LETTER.

John H. Haughton, Esq., of Chatham, one of the State delegates to the Philadelphia K. N. Convention, has written and published a letter giving his account of the action of that body, and urging his friends to rally to the support of Fillmore and Donelson. It is our purpose to notice hereafter some of the statements made in this letter; but meantime we call attention only as we have space to day, to one or two points in it.

There is a slight difference of opinion between the Raleigh Register and Mr. Haughton as to the platform. We present this difference thus, in parallel colums:

|---|---|
| The nominating Convention neither accepted nor rejected the platform of the National Council, but properly eschewing all platforms, left[ality] of the party destroyed. the nominees free from all pledges and unfettered by any[al] platform adopted by the other restrictions than those which are imposed by the federal constitution. | But the effort is made to produce the impression that the Convention was split up into sections, and the nation- In the first place, this nation- Council, and virtually endorsed by the Convention, is a sufficient answer. |
| Raleigh Register. | Mr. Haughton's Letter. |

Which is right—the Register, or Mr. Haughton? Again: Mr. Haughton labors to show that the Edie or abolition delegates from Pennsylvania, were admitted to seats in the Convention, not on account of their peculiar views on slavery, but because they had the best credentials. Now let us see how this is. We find copied into the Wilmington Herald, the report of the minority of the committee on credentials, signed A. Kennedy, of Maryland; W. G. Brownlow, of Tennessee; John A. Baker, of North Carolina; W. A. Lake, of Miss.; R. K. Call, of Florida; and W. P. Sanfly, of Texas. We present, in double columns, the statement of Mr. Haughton on this subject, and the report of this committee, as follows:

| There were several questions involved in this contest—among them, whether the Edie delegates had not forfeited their right as members of the national Convention, because the State Council of Pennsylvania, which appointed them, had rejected the 12th section of the national platform of June last, while it was said the Hunsicker had adopted it. On the other hand, it was contended that the State Council which appointed the Hunsicker delegates was spurious, not having been duly constituted. The respective delegates were heard, each by one of their number, and when the vote was about to be taken, it was very difficult to determine which set was entitled, and accordingly, Mr. Erastus Brooks, of New York, proposed to refer the whole matter back to the committee on credentials, but, more for want of time, I believe, than any other cause, this did not prevail, and the vote being taken, resulted in favor of the Edie delegates. I have been thus particular in alluding to this matter, because it has been the subject of much misrepresentation; it has been affirmed that it was a test vote in the Convention upon the slavery question; this, I say, unhesitatingly, is not so. The simple inquiry was, as to the credentials of the two sets of delegates and not their political opinions. | The undersigned members of the Committee on Credentials, find themselves constrained to differ from the majority, in regard to eligibility of those claiming to be delegates to this Convention from the State of Pennsylvania. We regard this Convention as having been called, for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, upon the basis of the conservative and national adjustment of the vexed question of slavery embodied in the platform of June 12, 1855, and THAT NO POLITICAL ORGANIZATION, WHICH HAS REPUDIATED OR REJECTED THE SUBSTANCE, AND PRINCIPLES OF THAT ADJUSTMENT IS ENTITLED TO A REPRESENTATIVE IN THIS CONVENTION. Understanding that the delegates whose claims have been admitted by a majority of the committee were elected under the Edie Council, of Pennsylvania, which claims to be the American party in Pennsylvania, [illegible] after having as admitted, rejected and repudiated the twelfth section of said platform, we are of opinion that said delegates have no right to seats in the Convention. |
| Mr. Haughton's Letter. | Report of Committee. |

What will Mr. Haughton say now? Is he right, and are Messrs. Baker, Brownlow, Lake, and others, wrong. Is he better qualified to answer for the committee than Mr. Baker, from his own State, who was a memberof it?

INDIGNATION IN NORFOLK.—The people of Norfolk are justly indignant at the neglect with which their interests have been treated by the Legislature of Virginia. A large and highly respectable meeting of the citizens was recently held, at which strong Resolutions on the subject were adopted. They complain that while the State taxes have been greatly increased, all their applications for aid in the way of improvements have been rejected. They also express a desire to be annexed to North-Carolina. If the "old Dominion" should be willing to give them up, North-Carolina would receive them with open arms. The Richmond Enquirer refers at some length to the complaints of Norfolk—admits that she has not had justice at the hands of the Legislature, but adds, "we can never give our consent to the separation." The Enquirer says, "Norfolk is loved and will be cherished by the State," and "is destined to rank among the chief Cities of the South." It is indeed strange, that Virginia should neglect so valuable a seaport and so noble a community as Norfolk.

MR. EVERETT'S ORATIONS.—The Richmond and Petersburg papers speak in glowing terms of commendation of the Orations delivered in those Cities by the Hon. Edward Everett, on the character of Washington. Mr. Everett is an accomplished scholar, and a most impressive and polished speaker.—He deserves the thanks of every American for his efforts to raise funds for the purchase of Mount Vernon. The Enquirer states that the handsome sum of $853 was realized in Richmond to the Mount Vernon fund, from Mr. Everett's oration.

RIGHT.—We clip the following from the Asheville Spectator, and state that we are strongly in favor of the Democratic State Convention adopting a similar resolution. What say our cotemporaries?

Fay. North-Carolinian.

"A SUGGESTION.—We have long been of the opinion that the custom that has obtained in this State, of the candidates for Governor canvassing the State in person, should be done away with. The simple custom itself, to say nothing of the utter want of dignity and downright blackguardism, that have characterized many canvasses in our knowledge, is unworthy of the office of Governor. The Executive office of this State being neither one of profit nor of much responsibility, so far as co-ordination and the dispensation of patronage are concerned, should be one of honor, dignity, and respectability.

We therefore, would suggest that the Greensboro' Convention of the American Party adopt a resolution of this sort;

Resolved, That it is sense of this Convention, that the nominee of the American Party for Governor should not canvass the State in person, provided that the Democratic State Convention, when assembled, concur in the foregoing declaration.

Thus, we think, this unbecoming custom could be done away with. "What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander."

The Hillsborough Recorder says: "We concur entirely with the Spectator in this matter. It but expresses the sentiments entertained and expressed by us years ago, and we hope it is not too late now to amend the practice." We do not entirely concur with the Spectator in his opinion about the custom of canvassing; but we have no objection to the course suggested by that paper. Let the two Conventions nominate—let the public presses of the State, and the candidates for the Assembly vindicate the characters of their respective candidates for Governor, and set forth their claims; and then let the people decide.

GOOD NEWS FROM DEEP RIVER.—We learn from a letter received this morning from Mr. Cassidey, one of the directors of the C. F. & D. R. Navigation Co., that the steamer J. H. Haughton was at Haywood's landing with Coal, Flour, Corn, &c. and expected to leave for Fayetteville and this place on yesterday the 17th inst.

There were a large number of bidders for the contract for the completion of the works which were to be given out on the 15th inst. The Engineer and all interested were in fine spirits, under a belief that our long cherished and sanguine hopes of this enterprise are soon to be realized.

Hip! hip!! hip!!! Hurrah!!! bring out the big guns, and let us be ready to give the "Haughton" a "feu de joe" on her arrival at our port with the first cargo of native black diamonds.

Wil. Herald.

We understand that the Haughton arrived here yesterday afternoon, with a cargo of coal, flour, &c.

Observer.

This steamer has made two trips lately, the water not higher than ordinary winter water. The locks were in good order, and were passed easily. We learn that the Deep River work has been let out.—Among the contractors are Dr. Smith, Mr. Farish, Messrs. Hanks & Kirksey, Mr. Clegg, and Mr. King. As soon as this work is finished the heart of the coal mines will be reached.

BENEFITS OF LIFE INSURANCE.—Mr. Charles Fritz, of Germany, who recently died in this city, had, but a very few days anterior to the sickness which terminated in his death, taken out a policy in the North-Carolina Life Insurance Company for $1000, which will now, of course, be paid over to his widow. One practical example, such as this, is worth a thousand theories upon the subject of Life Insurance.

It is important to insurers that they should promptly renew their policies. Cases have occurred recently in which the insurance upon slaves has been lost by the lapse of a few days only—the owners having neglected to renew.

ACQUITTED.—At Nash Superior Court, last week, Judge Person presiding, John M. Strickland was tried on a charge of murdering J. M. Ferrell. The trial occupied three days, and resulted in an acquittal. NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.—We have now returns from the whole State with the exception of four small towns, which gave last year Baker 133; Metcalf, 70; scattering, 15. This would make the vote stand:

|---|---|
| Wells | 32,070 |
| Metcalf | 32,120 |
| Goodwin and scattering | 2,480 |

The whole vote (says the New Hampshire Patriot) will exceed 66,600, or 2,000 more than that of last year, when the largest vote ever cast was thrown.

The senate will stand 4 democrats to 8 abolitionists and know-nothings. In regard to the complexion of the lower house the patriot says:

"Whole number of representatives elected, 314: democrats, 150; all others, 164. This gives an apparent majority of 14 against the democrats; but among those reckoned against us are a number who cannot be relied on for Metcalf."

RAIL ROAD MEETING.—The annual meeting of the Western Rail Road Company was held in this place on the 17th inst. Col. John McRae presided.—The report of the President shows that the work has been prosecuted as vigorously as time and means would permit. Action was taken to secure the completion of the Road as soon as possible.

The old officers were re-elected, viz: C. B. Mallett, President; John M. Rose, Secretary and Treasurer; Geo. McNeill, A. J. O'Hanlon, Wm. McLaurin, A. A. McKethan, W. T. Horn, J. H. Cook, T. S. Lutterloh, H. L. Myrover, D. G. McRae, Directors.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE STANDARD.

WASHINGTON, March 22, 1856.

Passage of Dunn's Resolutions—A Commission to be sent to Kansas—Democrats not opposed to an investigation—A decision of Reeder's case indefinitely postponed—Kansas Free State Constitution—Judge Douglas' Speech—Candidates at the Cincinnati Convention—The great West—An amendment to the Tariff—The deficiency bill—Mode of fattening it—Ten Sloops of War—Appointment.

The Resolution, reported to the House of Representatives by its Committee on Elections, giving that Committee authority to send for persons and papers in the Kansas contested election case, failed to receive the endorsement of the House, and Mr. Dunn's substitute was adopted in its stead. The latter provides for the appointment of a commission of three members of the House, having a clerk, two sergeant-at-arms and an appropriation of ten thousand dollars, to proceed to Kansas and fully investigate the whole history of the troubles in that Territory.—They are clothed with very ample powers to summon witnesses and collect testimony, being entrusted with the power even of bringing witnesses to Washington for punishment should any one contemptuously refuse to testify in the case. The appointment of the Commissioners rests with the Speaker; the names of the members have not yet been announced, but it is rumored that Dunn, of Indiana, Hickman, of Pennsylvania, and either Mr. Oliver, of Missouri, Stephens, of Georgia, or Letcher, of Virginia, will compose the commission—being two anti-Nebraska and one Nebraska man. It will probably consume three months in going to the Territory, taking the testimony, and returning. The resolution adopted by the House provides also that all the evidence taken shall be embraced in the report; so a most voluminous document may be expected, which will probably be printed for the use of members and the information of the public, some time next autumn.

Both the original resolution presented by the committee and Mr. Dunn's substitute were generally opposed by the Democratic portion of the House, not because of any unwillingness to subject the whole history of Kansas to a rigid investigation, but for the reason that this investigation did not belong to or naturally grow out of the contested election case, and whatever the result of the inquiry might be, it could not at all affect the decision of the matter.—The foundation of Reeder's claim to represent the Territory of Kansas is thoroughly understood, and no amount of investigation can throw any additional light on it. But the black Republicans were determined to have investigation, and perhaps it is quite as well to have it in connection with the election case as in any other way.

The time necessary to carry out this investigation makes it quite certain that a decision will not be reached until near the close of the session, and may perhaps not be pressed to a vote of the House at all. If the black Republicans find themselves unable to carry a majority of the House, they will keep the subject open for agitation as long as possible—especially as an issue to rally the North upon in the Presidential election. Gov. Reeder's claim will receive their countenance and support so long as they have any hope of making political capital out of it for themselves, or money for the Emigrant Aid Society, and no longer. With them Kansas is a mere speculation, political and pecuniary, and excitement in relation thereto will be kept alive, just so long as a probability exists of its being a profitable one in either respect.

The State Constitution framed by the Freesoilers of Kansas went into effect on the 4th instant, and it is announced that the Legislature have elected two U. S. Senators, Gov. Reeder for six years, and Lane for four years. Mr. Delahay was chosen Representative in Congress at the last election, and is now here to claim a seat when Kansas is admitted as a State under the Constitution already framed. A more ridiculous state of things cannot be imagined, nor can more striking proof be obtained of the treasonable character of the operations of the abolition party in Kansas. Open defiance of the laws and of the regularly constituted authorities, has been followed by the organization of a new government and the preparation for waging hostilities against the local government of the Territory—or, in other words, to levy war against the U. States.

Judge Douglas' speech in the Senate on Thursday attracted an extraordinary degree of attention. The time, the circumstances and the man, all conspired to clothe the speech with a peculiar interest. At an early hour every person privileged to admission into the Senate Chamber had claimed his place, and the galleries were thronged by ladies, even to the dispersion of a small army of reporters and correspondents to whom one of the galleries is assigned. A peep into the House of Representatives disclosed a most beggarly account of empty seats, the time being filled up by a black Republican from Indiana, who was most eloquently reading a speech on the wrongs of Kansas, to whom at least three persons were pretending to pay diligent attention. Mr. Douglas' speech is spoken of as a production of marked ability, defending at length the views presented in the report from the Territorial Committee in the Senate; it adds largely to the great reputation heretofore achieved by the distinguished Illinois Senator, fixing his position among the boldest and ablest statesmen of the times. Additional interest was given to the speech from the rumor that the Republicans intended to insult him in some way or other, and in such a manner as to leave but one mode of seeking redress. But they made no attempt of the sort, remembering that prudence was the better part of valor.

The firm and decided position taken by Judge Douglas in relation to Kansas affairs, and the boldness and ability with which he has defended that position, no doubt is making him many friends, who will desire to see him nominated for the Presidency by the Cincinnati Convention. I need hardly say that as the time for the meeting of that Convention approaches, the interest of all in its action increases. The first ballot will disclose the fact that three prominent candidates will be before it, Pierce, Buchanan and Douglas, the friends of each striving to secure the nomination for their favorite. Probably Gen. Pierce will have a plurality of the votes to start with, a circumstance that will carry great weight with it, and may lead to his nomination. So far I am glad to know that the canvass for the nomination is being carried on and the claims of each discussed, without disparagement to the others—excepting from this general remark of course the Sentinel of this City, which under the cloak of Democracy, is waging an insane warfare against Gen. Pierce. The great West will doubtless urge Judge Douglas's claims with a great deal of earnestness, putting him forward as the representative man of that section of the country, as a national man, a sound Democrat and worthy of the confidence of the country.

Senator James, of Rhode Island, has presented a project for an amendment or modification of the tariff. The bill makes a new classification of articles, fixing new rates, reducing the whole to four lists, paying 80, 30, and 20 per cent, advalorem, and a free list. The advalorem principle is adhered to, but it strikes me on a casual examination only that a good many changes have been introduced for the benefit of the manufacturing interests, throwing the deficiency in the revenue thereby created upon other interests. The amendment proposed by the committee of Ways and Means of the last Congress, making a general reduction of 20 per cent on the rates now paid, would perhaps come as near to an equalization of the burdens of taxation as any system that could be devised—making an exception in a few articles such as sugar, salt and iron. The amount of revenue now collected leads to lavish expenditure, and a considerable reduction of the duties would materially promote economy in the appropriations by Congress.

The deficiency bill which passed the House two or three weeks since, containing appropriations for all the deficiencies estimated for by the Executive Departments,—was a small affair when it left that body,—has already grown to two or three times its original size, and will probably be still further increased before it passes the Senate. It is a common practice to pass the deficiency bill through the House of Representatives, containing as little as possible; when it reaches the Senate, it is loaded down with innumerable amendments, passed, and returned to the House for its concurrence. Here the real struggle over the bill commences, and no stone is left unturned to engineer the amendments through, and whatever is concurred in, is so much gained. Then follows a committee of conference between the two Houses, over the amendments non-concurred in, and a further struggle ensues to secure a favorable report on as many of these as possible. In this way the bill, originally a small one, becomes one of enormous magnitude, appropriating millions of money.

The Senate bill appropriating three millions for the construction of ten steam sloops of war, has been favorably reported upon by the Naval committee of the House, and will be put upon its passage at an early day. These vessels, added to the six new steam frigates, and several other vessels now being rebuilt, will make an important increase in our Navy, and signalize the administration of the present head of the Navy Department as one of great advantage to that branch of the public service.

Many of your readers, and especially the members of the last three Legislatures of North Carolina, will rejoice to learn that William H. Joyner, Esqr., of Franklin County, has been appointed a Clerk in the Treasury Department here in the office of the Solicitor of the Treasury. The appointment of Mr. Joyner is one eminently "fit to be made," and an acquisition to the Government.

PHILADELPHIA, March 21, 1856.

The published lists of arrivals at the different hotels, contain an unusually large number of names hailing from the "old North State." It is to be presumed the major part are merchants, laying in their stocks for the supply of the good people of North-Carolina. When will the merchants and people of the South, combine and take measures to turn this annual stream of profitable trade into its legitimate channel, and thus prevent it from enriching the bitter enemies of Southern rights and Southern institutions?

We have, in this City, a regiment of police, numbering upwards of six hundred and fifty men, and costing nearly four hundred thousand dollars per annum; every man of which is native-born, and a member of the Know Nothing organization, none other being admissable, as several native-born Democrats were turned out because they refused to visit "Sam." This large and exceedingly well paid force, ought to be amply sufficient for the protection of the City, if they did their duty; yet, a series of the most daring burglaries have been lately perpetrated in the most public thoroughfares. Stores have been broken open and ransacked, packages opened, the most valuable goods selected and carried off, (in one instance to the amount of $10,000,) without the least interference from "Sam's" police. It would be well for country visitors to look out for themselves, and not to depend upon our city police, who are "good for nothings," as well as "Know Nothings."

The election for civic officers takes place in May next. The Democrats are up and doing. Ward after ward is meeting and making arrangements to bring forward as candidates, men of sound principles and unimpeachable integrity, and thus give the citizens an opportunity of getting rid of the leeches who are sucking the life-blood of the community. The Know Nothings of this City will, in May next, receive the first instalment of the National drubbing "Sam" is destined to "catch" next November.

The burning of the steam ferry-boat, New Jersey, on the night of Saturday last, within a few yards of the wharves, has caused a great sensation, not only here, but in New York. Nearly fifty lives have been lost, which might have been saved, if the judicious law of Congress regulating sea-going steamers, had been extended to river and ferry boats. It is to be hoped that immediate steps will be taken to compel all steamers to be provided with a competent supply, according to her tonnage, of life-boats and life-preservers; and, as far as practicable, by precautionary measures, put an end to this wholesale destruction of human life. In the meantime, the proprietors of the different ferries in New York, have announced their intention of immediately supplying their boats with everything requisite to secure the safety of passengers in case of accident. Of course the owners of the Delaware ferries will show the same commendable promptitude in providing similar safe-guards. A very liberal subscription has been collected for the relief of these families left destitute by this calamity.

The retail markets are beginning to have the benefit of the late reduction in prices. Flour and meal have fallen, and butchers' meat has followed suit.—The newspapers are giving gentle hints to the City bakers about the size of their loaves, which present as slim an appearance as when flour was $12 per barrel.

A. N. COHEN'S CLOTHING.

We call the attention of our readers to the following editorial from the Charleston Courier of the 15th inst. We have no acquaintance with Mr. Cohen, but on the endorsement of the Courier we have no hesitation in recommending him:

Clothing Inducements.

We take a fitting occasion to invite the attention of all readers, and especially of our country friends, who desire good suits and moderate costs, to the advertisement of A. N. Cohen, Jr., of the Carolina Clothing Depot, 231 King-street, on the West side, and a few steps North of Wentworth-street. The supplies for this large and carefully conducted establishment are derived from a manufacturing establishment exclusively appropriated to the trade, and superintended by Mr. A. N. Cohen, at Newark, N. J., with strict and constant reference to the movements of fashion and the wants of Southern customers and dealers. In addition to a very full supply always on hand, and in such variety as to furnish fits for all claimants that present the human shape in any peculiar development, the arrangements of the establishment can supply special orders at short notice. To keep up the strictest guards and checks, the sales are recorded with specific descriptions and references to each article and to its vendor, so that if any article on being tested should not prove as represented—of which the proprietor indulges no fears, however—the purchaser can receive every facility for reparation.

The stock now on hand is large, new, varied and freshly selected for the present season, and the proprietor and all concerned desire a fair inspection and thorough examination on the part of all visitors.

DIED,

At his residence, in the town of Newbern on the 2d inst., THOMAS S. SINGLETON, Esq., in the 70th year of his age.

Mr. Singleton was one of our oldest and most honored citizens, and has filled many important offices in the eastern part of the State. He was born in Craven county and was the first law student of the late Judge Gaston, and remained a warm personal friend and companion of that loved and distinguished citizen while he lived, and cherished to the latest moments of his own existence an affectionate remembrance of his virtues. Having obtained license to practice law in the Courts of the State he removed to the County of Hyde, and there abandoned the legal profession to engage in agricultural pursuits. He received many marks of favor from his fellow-citizens of the county of his adoption, and when quite a young man, represented them in the Legislature of this State, with that high sense of honor and liberality which always marked his public and private career. President Madison appointed him Collector of the Customs for the District of Ocracoke during the late war with England, which was an office, at that time, of great responsibility. When Cockburn landed his men on the island of Portsmouth to fit out an expedition to attack Newbern, then the principal town in the State, he found the Collector at his post, and by his prudence and representations caused the Admiral to abandon it, which saved the town from pillage if not total destruction. On the return of the English to their vessels he was carried on board of one a prisoner of war, but after a few hours' confinement was landed on the island and set at liberty. He returned to Newbern to reside after an absence of a number of years, and was appointed by Gen. Jackson Collector of that port, and continued as such until Gen. Taylor's administration, when he voluntarily retired to reside on his farm on the banks of the Neuse. He was again appointed Collector of the port of Newbern by Gen. Pierce, and held the office at the time of his death. He has served the town of Newbern and county of Craven in various capacities as Justice of the Peace, Intendant of Police, and as Trustee of the Academy, in all of which he won the approbation and esteem of all with whom he was connected.

Mr. Singleton was a true man in all the relations of life. Though firm and inflexible in the discharge of his duty; yet as a friend and neighbor, obliging and courteous, and gentle as a child. There was nothing small or selfish about him. His kind and benevolent heart warmed towards his brother man of whatever creed, condition or country, and his hand was ever extended to relieve the sufferings of the destitute and improve the condition of those around him.

He has now fallen, and the government has been deprived of a faithful and efficient officer, the community of an estimable and enterprising citizen, and his family of a kind husband and an affectionate parent; but they have the melancholy satisfaction of looking back upon his long life of usefulness, his spotless integrity, and unsullied character.

PROSPECTUS OF "THE WESTERN SENTINEL," A DEMOCRATIC AND FAMILY JOURNAL.

SOLICITED BY MANY CITIZENS OF FORSYTH and surrounding Counties, the undersigned proposes to publish, in the town of Winston, North Carolina, a Weekly Newspaper under the above title.

The increasing public interests of our section, and of Western Carolina generally; the enlarged appreciation of the reading public; and the demand for a local journal at the seat of our County government, seem to favor the establishment at Winston of a journal of the character proposed.

The "Sentinel" will be devoted to Morality, Pure Literature, Republican Principles, General Intelligence, and the interests of the people. It will be the aim of the publisher to render it a repository of pleasing and profitable reading, a faithful record of events, and an agreeable companion to the Home Circle.

In matters of public policy, both National and State, it will yield an unwavering support to Democratic measures, and a zealous advocacy of the Democratic cause; sustaining to the height of its ability the principles of the Baltimore Democratic platform of 1852, as agreed upon by the Party, and sanctioned by a large majority of the American People.

Against the recently organized "Know Nothing," or "Native American" movement, the Sentinel will take decided and unequivocal ground; regarding the creation of a religious test as qualification for public office, at variance with the letter and spirit of the Constitution, opposed to every principle of Republicanism, and worthy only the ignorance and intolerance of a darker age. Acting from a firm conviction that honesty, capability, and fidelity to the Constitution, (aside from political principle,) are sufficient requisites in candidates for office under a Republican form of government, we shall oppose any organization, whether secret or open, that seeks to create a barrier between the native and adopted citizen, or to deprive either of the rights and privileges enjoyed under the Constitution and Laws, as they stand. In short, our position and sentiment upon this subject will be: PRINCIPLES—not birth-place; MEASURES—not men.

The paper will be devotedly attached to the Union of the States, while maintaining a jealous guardianship of their individual rights: advocating as the only guarantee of the perpetuity of the Union, a strict and faithful adherence, under all circumstances, to the Federal Constitution.

With the increased mail facilities afforded by the completion of the North Carolina Railroad, and the advantages of a daily arrival, the Sentinel will contain the latest and most reliable intelligence.

Especial care and attention will be bestowed upon the Editorial Department; and with the assistance of intelligent correspondents, it is hoped that the original portion of the publication may form a pleasing and attractive feature.

While the tone of the "Sentinel" upon all subjects, will be fearless and independent, its columns will be entirely free from the low slang and billingsgate rhetoric so conspicuous in some of the political journals of the day.

The first number will be issued in the month of April next.

The "Sentinel" will be printed weekly, from new type, on a large sheet, at the price of Two Dollars per year, in advance; two dollars and a half after six months, or three dollars after the close of the subscription year. To any one procuring ten subscribers, and paying the cash in advance, the paper will be furnished one year, gratis.

Prospectus of the "Southern Sentinel,"

A Democratic and Miscellaneous Journal, to be Published Weekly, at Wilson, N. C.

THE EXISTING CONDITION OF POLITICAL PARTIES, and of partizan strife, naturally suggests the establishing of such a journal as the "SOUTHERN SENTINEL" purposes to become. The present, indeed, is a crisis in our political history, never witnessed before. The Constitution has been invaded; the laws trampled and spat upon; religious liberty assailed; ballot boxes broken and burnt; the landmarks of our political ancestry partially effaced; the wisdom derived from a time-honored experience unseated; strange and questionable men have been pushed into high positions; and fanaticism, unchained from its axe and its faggot piles in the North, is heard to howl among us in the South. These evils, so far as its humble abilities shall serve, will endeavor to arrest. It will endeavor to inculcate a reverence for the laws as they exist, and for the Constitution, as it has been interpreted by the wis. men of the past and by the Fathers of the Democratic faith. It will defend not only political, but RELIGIOUS liberty, and will do battle against every political heresy that may appear, whether hatched in caves or culverts, or open convention.

The SENTINEL will also, to relieve the monotony of politics, devote space to literary topics, original and selected, as well as to miscellaneous subjects, which shall include Agricultural and the latest Commercial intelligence. In brief, no efforts nor expenses will be spared to make the Sentinel one of the most useful and efficient journals in the South.

The first number of the Sentinel will be issued about the first of the next month, and sent to subscribers at the rate of $2 per annum: $2 50 at the end of six months, and $3 at the end of the year. Discount made in behalf of clubs, who shall take five, ten or more copies.

CARROLL HOUSE,
CHESTERVILLE, S. C.

THAT LARGE AND SPLENDID THREE STORY Building on the east side of Chester Depot, is now open for the accommodation of persons travelling by the Cars, or otherwise. The Proprietor is well aware, that nothing short of a well-kept house, will induce custom to this so recently gotten up; and although very solicitous of patronage, he refrains from those thousand and one promises which have been made, only to be broken by many of his "illustrious predecessors."

He confidently hopes, that he will be sustained, and upon trial give that satisfaction and accomodation to the wearied traveller, that will send him on his way rejoicing.

Foundry and Machine Shop for Sale.

THE CLARENDON IRON WORKS, LOCATED IN the town of Wilmington, North Carolina, now in successful operation, are offered for sale on accommodating terms; or an interest will be sold to a man of experience in the business, who has capacity to superintend the same.

The property consists of a capacious and well-arranged

MACHINE SHOP, PATTERN ROOM, BOILER SHOP, BLACKSMITH SHOP, IRON AND BRASS FOUNDRY, DRAFTING ROOMS AND OFFICES,

all well supplied with tools, and capable of doing work of any kind that can be done at first class shops. The building will accommodate 500 hands, and the present tools are sufficient for 300 men. The land and water front is of sufficient extent to admit of any enlargement or addition that may be desired.

The present demand for work is sufficient to keep the establishment employed with a force of 300 hands, and will increase. The prices obtained for work are such as to be profitable to the proprietor, and compare favorably with prices at other points to the purchaser.

In addition to the many advantages possessed by this location for the business, the opening of the Cape Fear and Deep River works, and the building of the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad, will create additional demands for work, and furnish a supply of fine quality Coal and Iron.

If the whole, or an interest is not sold before the 16th day of April next, the property will be offered at public sale on that day, on the premises.

As the Establishment will continue in operation, orders for new work or repairs, will be attended to as heretofore.

Any information that may be desired, will be promptly furnished by application to the subscriber at Wilmington, N. C.

DESIRABLE RESIDENCE FOR SALE.—The subscriber having sold out her other property with a view of leaving the State, offers for sale, privately, her residence in Oxford, N. C. The dwelling has two rooms below and above stairs, eighteen by twenty feet, an airy passage, two corresponding basement rooms, and is two stories high. The out-houses consist of a large kitchen, smoke-house, dairy, and a very commodious stable, and there are six acres of land in the lot, all under plank enclosure, and one acre substantially paled in for a garden.—All of these buildings and improvements are entirely new, having been completed within the last twelve months, and occupy a most desirable location in the flourishing town of Oxford, and would be the exact thing for a gentleman from down the country desiring a healthy summer residence for his family; and besides the proverbial salubriousness of this region, this particular locality combines extraordinary educational advantages. The Baptist Female College, situated at this place, is one of the largest and most popular institutions of the kind in the State, besides another deservedly popular academy for young ladies; and the North-Carolina Masonic College is now in course of construction in this place, and will go into operation in the next year; besides an academy of high grade for boys, now in most successful operation, under the charge of one of the most popular teachers in the State.

This property will be sold on most accommodating terms as to payment, and for less money than it would cost to rear the buildings. Address Dr. Z. M. Paschall, Oxford, N. C., or Wm. Baskerville, Jr., Lombardy Grove, Mecklenburg Co., Virginia, either of whom are fully authorized to act in the premises.

A HUMOROUS VOLUME.

QUIZZICAL, SATIRICAL, MIRTHFUL AND SPARKLING.—Published this day, A Basket of Chips, by John Brougham, illustrated by McLenan. 1 vol., 12mo. Price, $1 25.

EXTRACT FROM PREFACE.

"A Basket of Chips" is a somewhat unpromising repast to ask any one to participate in, to be sure, and the unsavoriness of the name will, no doubt, be eagerly laid hold of by some of the critics. Perhaps it might be as well, in explanation of the title, to say that the random sketches contained in this volume are but the sawdust and shavings accumulated during intervals of more laborious carpentry.
